RE: Drainage Improvements to Alley South of Orange Street
At intersection with Alston Street

Dear Mr. Stokes:

Hutchinson, Moore & Rauch, LLC (HMR) met with you on Wednesday, May 9, 2014 to discuss the drainage issues behind Paul's Barber Shop located along the intersection of an alley and Alston Street south of Orange Avenue. The drainage issues discussed included the flooding of the Paul's Barber Shop building due to water not being able to reach the alley. The improvements would include slope paving a ditch to a new pipe that will be connected to an existing grate inlet. We anticipate releasing this work with the alley work to the north between Pine Street and Alston Street. The anticipated construction cost for these improvements are approximately $3,000.

HMR is pleased to provide you with the Engineering Fee Schedule for the work described above.

Field Investigation and Design Fee	$1,500
