

*Office of the Mayor
Foley, Alabama
Proclamation*

WHEREAS, Dyslexia is a specific learning disability, that is neurobiological in origin and is characterized by difficulties with accurate and/or fluent word recognition and by poor spelling and decoding abilities ; and

WHEREAS, these difficulties typically are caused by a deficit in the phonological component of language that is unexpected in relation to other cognitive abilities and to the provision of effective classroom instruction; and

WHEREAS; secondary consequences may include problems in reading comprehension and reduced reading experience that can impede growth of vocabulary and background knowledge; and

WHEREAS, Dyslexia occurs on a continuum of severity, affecting between 10 and 20 percent of the population according to the National Institutes of Health; and

WHEREAS, Alabamians will benefit from increased awareness of the nature of Dyslexia, the early warning signs of Dyslexia, and the value of multisensory structured language interventions for students with Dyslexia; and

WHEREAS, greater recognition and understanding are necessary to ensure that individuals with Dyslexia living in Alabama and all other Americans with Dyslexia are accurately identified and provided with appropriate services so that they might lead maximally productive lives.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor John Koniar, do hereby proclaim October, 2013 as, "National Dyslexia Awareness Month" in Foley, Alabama. I encourage all Alabamians to learn more about dyslexia and to offer support to parents, educators and individuals affected by Dyslexia.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand on this 7th Day of October, 2013
