

*Office of the Mayor
Foley, Alabama
Proclamation*

WHEREAS, residents of assisted living communities are active members of the larger community, offering their knowledge, life experiences and involvement; their past contributions continue to be a vital part of the City of Foley's rich history; and their ongoing participation deepens our City's identity; and

WHEREAS, assisted living is a critical long term care service for the elderly and individuals with disabilities that fosters choice, dignity, and independence; assisted living communities are committed to excellence, innovation and the advancement of person-centered care; and

WHEREAS, in 1995, the National Center for Assisted Living established National Assisted Living Week® to honor the contributions of assisted living communities in providing long term care to America's seniors and individuals with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, this year's theme of National Assisted Living Week® is "Family is Forever," which recognizes the unique bonds assisted living residents and staff members form; and

WHEREAS, the 2017 theme is inspired by a quote from the famed poet Maya Angelou: "Family isn't always blood, it's the people in your life who want you in theirs: the ones who accept you for who you are, the ones who would do anything to see you smile and who love you no matter what"; WHEREAS, it takes a special person to work in assisted living, as caregivers spend countless hours providing high quality care to residents; therefore, staff and residents often come to think of each other as family; WHEREAS, during this special week, assisted living communities across the country are encouraged to organize activities and events which celebrate the deep connections between the dedicated staff members and residents.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor John Koniar, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Foley, Alabama do hereby proclaim the week of September 10-16 2017 as, my hand on this 5th Day of September, 2017
