> Hi Mike, Thanks for the update. Below is a bio for you to choose from. Ralph told me last year that there was only one concern regarding me – that I went to Canada for four months each summer. Sue and I have had a long series of discussions about that and will not be returning here next summer. Our condo is listed for sale, was shown again today, and the realtor thinks there will be an offer forthcoming. If it isn't sold by August 25th, we have agreed to let the realtor lease it for 24 months. Whatever the outcome, we will not be coming back to Vancouver Island for the summers and that's the message I would like for you to relay to the council to relieve any concerns they might have about my ability to attend board meetings. Thanks. David
