Greetings,

My name is Louis Pope. I am the Founder and COO of My Community Mentors Inc, a nonprofit charitable organization that was established in Foley, Alabama July 19, 2017. We are seeking partnerships and hope that you would consider connecting with us to bring about positive change to the lives of the families in our community.

My Community Mentors was designed to provide a bridge between people in the community who want to give back and people in the community in need. NO ONE IS TURNED AWAY. We are bringing together community volunteers to foster relationships with the community, meeting their everyday needs, facilitating and fostering positive relationships with families and individuals.

My Community Mentors offers several programs for both adults and youth in the community such as: Youth Sports ages 4-18, (basketball, cheer, football, track, soccer, baseball, and dance), Youth Leadership Academy for young men 8-18, DIAMOND's a mentoring program for young women 8-18, Pre-trial Diversion, Budget Planning, GED Classes, After School Tutoring, Conflict Resolution, Graphic Design, Music Production, Art, ACT & SAT Test Prep, Parenting and Computer Classes, and Community Referrals.

We have held several events in the community in 2017 and we are looking forward to doing more this year and the years to come. We are counting on partners like you to stand with us as we change lives and uplift those who are underserved and impoverished in our community. Please consider being a continual partner, giving of your time and services to assist us, or making a one-time donation. When you give, you will receive a donor acknowledgement form for your tax records.

We appreciate you taking time to hear about My Community Mentors and look forward to serving our community with you by our side. Should you have any questions or need more information, feel free to contact us anytime. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Louis Pope

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.
