Dear John E. Koniar,

This acknowledges receipt of a request for information concerning error service of ten (10) years and three (3) months.

The lump sum payment required to receive credit for the above-referenced service is $20,063.12 if payment is made no later than June 30, 2017. Please make your check or money order payable to the Employees' Retirement System. There will be an additional interest charge for payment made on a later date. Recalculation of payment for a later date will be made upon request.

Employer cost due on the error service is $26,483.32. The employer and employee must each make payment for error service and both payments must be sent together to this office.

If we can be of further assistance, please contact this office.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Melanie Pieper", is written over a horizontal line.
