

Terry Young was raised and educated in Mobile, AL. He and his wife, Kathy, have been married for 49 years & have 2 sons. He is retired from Eglin AFB after employment in electronics with air-to-air combat training (ACMI). He was Contract Manager, working with the pilots of the 33rd Fighter Wing. Prior to the 33rd Fighter Wing, he worked in the Math Lab at Eglin and also in frequency control and analysis on the Eglin Test Range.

His hobbies are electronic construction & amateur radio, kayaking, swimming, and trying to keep up with his 6 grandchildren, ages 18, 17, 15, 15,13, & 12! He is currently serving as an elder at Foley First Presbyterian Church, where he is a member of the Property Committee.

After moving to Foley in 2006, Terry served on the Ashford Park Homeowner's Association as a member of the Architectural Committee. This committee reviewed and approved residents' requests for fences, pools, storage buildings and driveway changes.