

Larry Davenport
197 S. Bay St.
Foley, AL 36535

Education

Graduated from High School 1967

Auto mechanic training at Ford dealership for half of senior year
Upon graduation worked for a Chevrolet dealership

Military

Drafted into the Army in 1968

Stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky
Trained in the Army Armor School
Served in Viet Nam as an Armor Recon Sargent
Received 2 Purple Hearts and a Bronze Star
Stationed in Japan, also

Work History

After being discharged from the Army worked as a mechanic
1971 - Worked for the North Western Railroad and the Norfolk
Southern Railroad
Was a Conductor Boss
Hauled local freight between Montpelier, Ohio and Detroit, Michigan
Retired in 2006.

Moved to Foley in 2004

Married to high school sweetheart for 47 years

One son and one daughter

Has been an "engineer" on the Charles J. Ebert, Jr. Memorial Train for a year

References: Brian & Diann Fenstermaker –

Leonard & Lita Smith –

Mary Jo Noel -

Police Chief David Wilson