Explanation for deficient funds or other important information:
The unexpected purchase is necessary to replace an existing ballfield painter which recently broke down. This painter specializes in painting the football field numbers and logo. We have an immediate need for this painter since football season starts this week. This is a budget neutral request since we'll be using savings from previous capital purchases. We need to make this purchase immediately and with your approval, we plan to memorialize this request at the first meeting in September.
