A Resolution Approving the Nature Parks Pavilion Capital Project

The Nature Parks requests council approval to allocated funds for design, go to bid and if under budget authorize the Mayor to enter into the contract for construction on a large event pavilion at Graham Creek Nature Preserve. This project will be located south of the Interpretive Center and south of the creek crossing. Nature Parks plans to use Watermark Design Group (a Thompson Holdings, Inc. Company) as the sole designer for buildings constructed in the Nature Parks. Design Services including architectural design and engineering, geo technical, construction contract procurement and administration for a cost of $30,232.00. The budget for construction with 10% contingency is estimated at $290,400. This brings the total project cost to $320,632.00. This includes the pavilion of approximately 2200 square feet, two storage areas of 150 square feet each and solar powered fans. The pavilion will be used as a venue for educational programs as well as a rental area for events.
